Dear Ladies and Gentlemen,

The 9th international conference on translation and interpretation studies in Leipzig, LICTRA 2010, will take place from 19-21 May (following the CIUTI General Assembly), in the context of the 600th anniversary of our university.

As usual, the LICTRA is a three-day event for about 150-200 participants, comprising a few plenary sessions and three parallel sections with over fifty paper presentations. Papers and participants are invited from all continents. The theme for the 2010 conference is "T&I Research". The program committee welcomes contributions on the state-of-the-art and recent developments on topics such as:

- International T&I research activities, projects, results
- T&I theory
- T&I didactics
- Terminology, technical writing, LSP
- CAT, T&I tools and language engineering
- Language development, ESP, EFL
- Special issues in interpretation studies, court and community interpreting
- Audiovisual translation, audio description

Conference languages are English and German. Peer-reviewed selected LICTRA papers will be published in a conference proceedings volume.

If you would like to present a paper, please register by 31 December 2009 and hand in your abstract by 31 January 2010 to help us organize the conference program.
